

Lawrence T. Bennett, Esq., Professor Emeritus IPSLEI Board Member

Larry for past 14 years has been Program Chair, Fire Science & Emergency at the University of Cincinnati, where he teaches an online fire law class, and also teaches fire & EMS students as an Adjunct Professor at Cincinnati State. He has over 50 years of experience as an attorney, including representing Fire & EMS personnel. His public service experience includes U.S. Capitol police officer, Washington, D.C. Metro police officer, Assistant U.S. Attorney in D.C., and Ohio volunteer firefighter / EMT. He is the author of FIRE SERVICE LAW textbook (2 nd Edition; 2018) and updates the textbook with monthly Fire & EMS Law newsletters reviewing new court decisions, which are shared in “Scholar At UC” Library. <https://doi.org/10.7945/j6c2-q930>.

Larry earned his undergraduate degree at American University in Washington, D.C., and his Juris Doctor at the Washington College of Law. He has taught classes at the National Fire Academy, Executive Fire Office program, and currently serves on the Curriculum Committee for Fire & Emergency Service Higher Education. Larry is very active in pet therapy, including responding to critical incidents with Tri-State Peer Support Team and the SW Ohio Critical Incident Stress Management team. In August, 2023, he and his dog FRYE, were featured in the International Association of Fire Chiefs new publication: AMBER RIBON REPORT – BEST PRACTICES FOR FIRE SERVICE CANINES (pages 37-38), https://www.iafc.org/docs/default-source/1vcos/amberribbonreport.pdf?sfvrsn=9b9a7e0c_4

WWW.IPSLEI.ORG